FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU STUDENTS INITIATED INTO KAPPA DELTA PI

CHARLESTON -- Kappa Delta Pi, an international honor society in education, recently initiated 33 new members at Eastern Illinois University.

Kappa Delta Pi recognizes excellence in education. An individual becomes a member by invitation from a local chapter whose members have approved the candidacy. Such an invitation is based on high academic achievement, a commitment to education as a career and a professional attitude which assures the member's steady growth in the field of education.

The following EIU students have been initiated:

AUBURN -- Carrie Laurent, daughter of Gene and Theresa Laurent of Auburn; junior English major; 1994 graduate of Auburn High School.

ARTHUR -- Corinna Schoffstall, daughter of Larry and Carol Schoffstall of Arthur; junior elementary education major; 1994 graduate of Arthur High School.

FORT MILL, S.C. -- Natasha Jilek, daughter of W. Robert and Joanna Francisco of Fort Mill, S.C.; junior elementary education major; 1992 graduate of Fort Mill High School in Fort Mill, S.C.

Eastern emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.

Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
